HEAD COACH

Dr. Charles B. Clark is in his second year as head lacrosse coach and professor of history and political science. He brought a most respected lacrosse reputation to SSC.

Coach Clark was the starting center (face-off man) at Washington College for four years, graduating in 1934 with All-Maryland honors. He was also an end on the football team. Following high school teaching and coaching, graduate school, and collegiate teaching, and four years as a U.S. Marine Corps officer in World War II, he returned to Washington College in 1946. Two years later he revived lacrosse and served as head coach through 1956, compiling an impressive 75-31 record. The NCAA had no divisional categories in those days.

Clark's Washington College 1954 team, 8-2 on the year (losing only to Navy and Mt. Washington), was ranked fifth in the country among all teams and won the Laurie Cox Trophy (comparable to a NCAA Division II national title today). His 1951 team with a 10-3 record was ranked ninth, his 1952 team 13th, and his 1953 team ninth. First team All-Americans who played for Clark were Ray Wood, John Howard, Mickey DiMaggio and Joe Sievold.

Coach Clark served four years on the Executive Board of the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association in the 1950s, and two years as president (1955-1957). He has recently been elected again to the Executive Board of this governing body of lacrosse.

In 1953 he was head coach of the South team in the annual North-South All-Star game, his team winning 12-9 in Baltimore. He also served as chairman of the lacrosse All-American selection committee 1958-1960. He has had previous collegiate coaching experience in basketball, tennis and track.

Dr. Clark and his wife Becky (Belding) live in Salisbury. They have four children (Adelaide, Charles, Jr., Mary and Paul) and three grandchildren.

COACHING STAFF

DAVE COTTLE. . . The former Sea Gull first team all-American is in his third year as assistant coach and will work principally with the attack and midfield in 1980. Coach Clark is high in his praise of Cottle who is currently working toward his master's degree at SSC. "Not only was he a great player in college, but he is a keen student of the game. He is already an outstanding coach and should become a great one," says Clark.

The Northern High School (Baltimore) graduate was Salisbury's first player to compete in the North-South game in addition to leading the Gulls and the nation in scoring. In 1975 he became the third player in lacrosse history to score more than 100 points in a season with 52 goals and 51 assists. Since graduation, Cottle has been an all-star club player for the Eastern Shore Lacrosse Club of Chestertown.

STEVE PAPPAS. . . Pappas, a former junior college all-American at Catonsville Community College, is in his third year as assistant coach at SSC and will work primarily with the defense. Coach Clark noted that Steve's work with the defense and his general assistance are of high order. "As in the case of Cottle, Steve has great pride in SSC lacrosse and is determined that the Sea Gulls excel as they have in the past. Steve's contribution is great."

As a player, Pappas was noted as a very quick player with excellent size and stickwork. A talented athlete, he also captained the Gulls's soccer squad and was named MVP of the Sea Gull booters. Pappas was also a junior college all-American in soccer at Catonsville.

Steve is also a top defenseman for the Eastern Shore Lacrosse Club.

LARRY REDDING. . . Larry was co-captain for the Sea Gulls in 1977 and 1978. An outstanding defensive midfielder, he was an excellent team leader and pacesetter. In 1980 Larry will work primarily with the junior varsity. Coach Clark noted that "Larry will be a great help to us. He is mature, serious, and determined to help his old team reach the top. We are very pleased to have him join our staff."

On weekends Larry will join Cottle and Pappas on the Eastern Shore Lacrosse Club.

PROSPECTUS

The 1979 SSC lacrosse team, following a disappointing 1978 season, was a mixture of some notable achievements and some disappointments. New head coach Charles B. Clark inherited a young squad hardly experienced enough for several of the teams scheduled, including three NCAA Division I teams and several of the powers in Division II-III. A siege of injuries prior to the opening game at North Carolina State University did not help. New personnel on defense and in the goal were unable to handle the fine N.C. State attack. However, the team scored well and continued the same during the next six games, only one of which was won—over Denision University.

Down 1-6 at the midway point, the Sea Gulls were determined to salvage what they could and proceeded to maul the last five teams on the schedule to terminate the regular season with a 6-6 record. Because of this streak and laudable performances against strong teams, SSC was elected to play in the 12-team NCAA Division II-III championship tournament, ranked ninth among teams in these two divisions. Paired with Loyola College, eighth ranked and a team that had won over the Sea Gulls 16-14 in regular season play, SSC played one of its greatest games ever, coming back from a 2-6 halftime deficit to win 13-12 to reach the quarterfinals for the first time in the college's history. This matchup against Towson State, seeded number one, found SSC unable to handle a fine team that competes in Division I effective with 1979.

With an additional year of maturity, plus an outstanding fall practice and success in five of seven scrimmages, and with minimal graduation losses, the Sea Gulls may be able to put together their best season ever in 1980. NCAA Divisions II and III, hitherto playing in the same championship series, will have separate tournaments this year. Top Division III teams that Salisbury will have to handle include perennial powers Hobart and Washington College, plus St. Lawrence University, St. Mary's College, Ohio Wesleyan and Denison University. Coach Clark is confident his team will be stronger overall on defense and measurabley stronger in the goal with the return to college of Mike ("Abdul") Sparr, regular goalie in 1978. A new spirit prevailed in the fall and should carry over. Defensemen expected to do an effective job are co-captain Matt Lawrence, Craig Conover, Greg Eshleman, Dave Coombe (if eligible), Mike Simms, Barry Burkhardt, Chuck Fleming, Val Eshleman and Jim McManus. The attack, intact from 1979, should again be strong with leading scorer Kevin Wynne, plus Gary Starkey, Brian Rogers, Brian Wynne, Mike Bracken, Scott Spear and Mike Mulligan—all improved and talented. Midfield play will be led by co-captain Glenn Norris and seniors Jimmy Judge, Lewis Scharff, Dave Bateman, Frank Bird and Dave Dougherty. Other experienced varsity midfielders include Don Codignotto, Phil Bauer, Rick Sawicki, Tim Newton and Ken Pennington. Bo Feaga and Mike Miller, both sophomores, reported to the squad last fall for the first time and will be a great help to the team. Back-up strength in the goal will come from sophomores Doug Colonnel, a letter-winner in 1980, Bucky Dennig and Mark Fowler.

Among newcomers showing considerable promise are are John Demarest, Mike Dovey, Tim George, Kevin McNulty, John Moorhead, Leif Thurston and Peri Anest.
